Digital Leaders

This week 15 of our Digital Leaders, with others from NPAT, went to spend a day at the Microsoft offices in Reading. The children had a great day and represented the school really well.

Year 5 Multisports

This week we took 30 children from year 5 to the Academy to take part in a multi-sports afternoon. The children had the opportunity to improve their skills in different sports. The weather was delightful and the children behaved magnificently with 5 of the children being awarded medals.

Trust Review

This week the school had a review by the Northampton Primary Academy Trust. They talked to parents, children and staff as well as looking at books and going into lessons. This was a really positive experience and were very impressed with the school.
